Welcome to our service today This time together is when we share in the worship and support each other. We receive God's grace through the Eucharist, and we encourage each other as we gather. If you're joining us for the first time, please do not worry about doing the right thing at the right time, we hope you experience something of the love of God and feel welcome among us. If you have young children, you will find an area at the back with books and toys; do feel free to use. We don't worry about wandering toddlers, if you are happy wandering with them as they explore, then we are happy you are here!

Sunday Services

10 am Eucharist, The mass setting is Schubert's German Mass. We welcome Robin Beaumont on the organ.

Hymns 626, 246 [tune 213], 466, 377.

First Reading Revelation 7.9–17

9 After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. <sup>10</sup>They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

‘Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!’

<sup>11</sup>And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, <sup>12</sup>singing,

‘Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.’

<sup>13</sup> Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, ‘Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?’ <sup>14</sup>I said to him, ‘Sir, you are the one that knows.’ Then he said to me, ‘These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup> For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

<sup>16</sup> They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat;

<sup>17</sup> for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.’

Gospel reading Matthew 5.1–12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. <sup>2</sup>Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

<sup>3</sup> ‘Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>4</sup> ‘Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

<sup>5</sup> ‘Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

<sup>6</sup> ‘Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

<sup>7</sup> ‘Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

<sup>8</sup> ‘Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

<sup>9</sup> ‘Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

<sup>10</sup> ‘Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>11</sup> ‘Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. <sup>12</sup>Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

No collection will be taken at our service today. If you would like to make a donation to support our parish, simply scan the QR code. You can find a donation terminal at the back of the church and there is a wall safe too.
